Council Member Allowances & Benefits Register

Section 76 of the Local Government Act 1999 ("the Act"), provides that each member of a Council is entitled to receive an allowance from the Council for performing and discharging official functions and duties as determined by the Remuneration Tribunal.
Section 79 of the Act requires the Chief Executive Officer to keep a record (the Council Member Allowances & Benefits Register) which, in respect of each Member of the Council, will contain the annual allowance payable to the Member, details of any expenses reimbursed by the Council under section 77(1)(b) of the Act and details of other benefits paid or payable to, or provided for the benefit of, the Member of the Council.
Please refer to the Council Member Allowances & Benefits Policy for more information.
