2. POLICY OBJECTIVE

This policy is developed in accordance to section 259 of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act) to enable Council to exercise its regulatory functions by formulations of policies and by-laws, and issuing orders. This policy will apply to those circumstances listed in section 254 which states that Council may order a person to do or refrain a person from doing a thing under certain circumstances, as specified in the table included within that section of the Act (refer Appendix A of this Policy)

This policy also applies in respect of orders issued by Council pursuant to section 216 (power to order the owner of a private road to carry out specified roadworks), section 217 and section 218 (power to order owner of infrastructure on road to carry out specified maintenance or repair work).

3. POLICY DETAIL

3.1 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

When considering making an order within the scope of this policy, Wakefield Regional Council will consider the following principles, which are central to the effective resolution of local nuisances on private land. Each case for the possible use of the order making powers will be considered on its individual merits. Factors that Council will consider include:

- Severity of the incident;
- Hazard/danger posed to the community;
- Risk to health/safety of the community;
- Detraction from the amenity of the locality;
- Repeated occurrence of the activity/incident (e.g. duration, previous offences);
- Impact of any previous actions to overcome the problem;
- Is the breach significant/substantial?
- Would an informal letter be sufficient?
- Are there any public interest issues?
- Whether there is sufficient evidence upon which Council may rely to exercise its order making powers;

- The offender's response and number of complaints received (if any) in respect of the matter.

3.2 MATTERS TO WHICH THIS POLICY APPLIES

Except in the case of an emergency described below, Council will take reasonable steps, within available resources, to resolve cases of local nuisance and/or low risk hazards by negotiation and agreement before issuing an order. This may include a personal approach by Council officers and/or an informal warning letter prior to commencing the formal order making process.

Except in the case of an emergency described below, before making an order Council will give notice of its intention to make an order in accordance with section 255 of the Act by:

- Giving the person to whom an order is intended to be directed a notice in writing stating the:
 - Proposed action required to rectify the matter;
 - Terms of the proposed order (i.e. what it requires the person to do or refrain from doing);
 - Period within which compliance with the order will be required;
 - Penalties for non-compliance; and
 - Reasons for the proposed action; and
- Inviting the person notified of the opportunity to give reason/s, within a specified time, why the proposed action should not be taken.

Council will proceed to make an order without negotiation or notice, in accordance with section 255 (12) where Council considers the circumstance or activity constitutes, or is likely to constitute:

- A threat to life; or
- An immediate threat to public health or public safety; or
- An emergency situation.

3.3 REVIEW RIGHTS

Any person to whom an order is issued has a right to appeal against the order pursuant to section 256 of the Act. Any such appeal must be lodged within 14 days of the person's receipt of the order. Council will ensure that reference to this right of review is included in any order issued.

3.4 NON-COMPLIANCE WITH AN ORDER

If an order issued under section 254, 216 or 218 of the Act is not complied with within the time fixed for compliance (or if there is an application for review, within 14 days after the determination of the review) the Council may take the action required by the order.

The reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Council in taking action under this section may be recovered by Council as a debt from the person who failed to comply with the requirements of the order.

Where an amount is recoverable by Council, Council may, by notice in writing to the person:

1. fix a period, being not less than 28 days from the date of the notice, within which the amount must be paid; and
2. if the amount is not paid by the person within that period, the person is liable to pay interest and Council may impose a charge over the land for the unpaid amount, together with interest, in accordance with section 257(5) of the Act.

Non-compliance with an order of Council is an offence for which a person may incur a statutory penalty provided for in the Act. Section 258 of the Act provides for a maximum penalty of $2,500 and an expiation fee of $210 for failure to comply with an order issued under the Act.

When an order is issued under section 217 of the Act, if the order is not complied with within the time specified in the order:

- Council may carry out the action required by the order and recover the costs of doing so as a debt for the owner; and
- The owner is guilty of an offence and liable to a maximum penalty not exceeding $5,000.

3.5 RESPONSIBILITIES AND DELEGATIONS

This policy will be enforced by Authorised Persons who have been appointed (in writing) by the Council under section 260 of the Act. Authorised Persons have powers under section 261 of the Act to enforce breach of orders by way of expiation.

Council may also choose to delegate the power to issue orders under sections 254, 216, 217 and 218 of the Act to Council staff, in which case, Council will ensure appropriate delegations are in place.

4. REVIEW

This Policy shall be reviewed every 48 months, or more frequently if required by legislation or Council.

Material amendment to this Policy will be subject to the public consultation provisions of the Local Government Act 1999 at Section 259 (2), unless the alteration has only minor significance and is likely to attract little or no community interest.
